Ms Duduzile C. Myeni holds a bachelor's degree in Business Administration, a Secondary Teachers' diploma in Commerce and an Advanced Business Management Diploma. Ms Myeni was appointed to the SAA Board in September 2009 and the Air Chefs Board in April 2010. A philanthropist and an entrepreneur, she is the CEO of Skills Dynamics, consulting for various blue chip companies. She has also embarked on numerous social development projects on behalf of various Government Departments and major corporations in the region. Her dedication and skill have culminated in her appointment as Chairperson of Mhlathuze Water Board in 2006. During the past 2 years, she was also appointed to head the Jacob Zuma Foundation, where she is currently the Acting Chairperson, in addition to managing the Mhlathuze Water Board. In her spare time she gives inspirational talks for corporate and community groups on topics such as transformative leadership, diversity dynamics, change management and female leadership.

The Jacob Zuma Foundation:

In keeping with the results-driven approach of its Patron, The Jacob Zuma Foundation strives to respond effectively, efficiently and with accountability to the needs of beneficiary communities. The Jacob Zuma Foundation was founded in 2008 and prides itself on its ethics, integrity and credibility and is respected both locally and internationally for its commitment to improving the socio-economic conditions of the poor. The Foundation is committed to broadening its network of donor partners to enable life-changing measures for impoverished South Africans. Decisions are made in consultation with the Foundation's Stakeholders and the Patron, and thereafter translated by the Board and Management into enabling programmes and initiatives that make tangible and measurable improvements in the lives of beneficiary communities

We look forward to welcoming you to this most interesting presentation in Zurich.
