

Of bulls, bears and rhinos – Capital markets and nature conservation!

On behalf of the Chairman, Mr. Georg C. Umbricht, we are very pleased to invite you, your colleagues and friends to a presentation by Annelise Peers, CIO of Investec Bank (Switzerland) AG and co-founder of the Swiss Wildlife of Africa Foundation (SWAF).

Annelise will be presenting Investec's views on equity and bond markets as well as the work which her foundation does in conjunction with Investec's RhinoLifeline charity in South Africa, focusing on the preservation of Rhino's and other endangered wildlife in the region.

	Date:	Thursday, September 27, 2018
	Time:	11.45h Registration 12.00h Lunch followed by speech 14.00h End of the Event
	Venue:	Zunfthaus zur Waag, Münsterhof 8, 8001 Zürich

Annelise Peers is the Chief Investment Officer of Investec Bank (Switzerland) AG and is responsible for overseeing the development and management of the Investec Bank (Switzerland) AG investment process. Annelise has over 25 years of experience within the investment industry with particular expertise in foreign exchange markets, capital and money markets and fixed income securities. Annelise joined Investec Merchant Bank in 1995 as a fixed interest analyst and was rated by financial institutions as one of the top three analysts for four consecutive years. She then moved to the Netherlands where she joined Insinger Asset Management as Head of Fixed Interest Investments. During her tenure, the Insinger European Bond Fund received the Micropal and Lipper prizes as the top-performing fund worldwide over a one, two and three year time horizon. In 2000, Annelise set up her own investment company in Switzerland providing investment advice to high net worth individuals and institutional clients before rejoining Investec Bank (Switzerland) AG in 2014.

We are looking forward to personally welcoming you to this interesting discussion at Zunfthaus zur Waag in Zurich.
