Daniel Silke is recognised as one of South Africa's leading political economy analysts and most passionate keynote speakers. His success lies in blending both economic and political trends in highly accessible yet insightful physical and virtual presentations. As Director of the Political Futures Consultancy based in Cape Town, Silke serves a host of major global blue-chip companies with outstanding keynotes webinars and workshops aimed at the conference and events industries. He has over 15 years' experience in delivering flagship presentations on Global, African and South African political and economic trends alongside providing essential strategic foresight for business entities large and small.

He is also a former City Councillor in the City of Cape Town and a former Member of the Western Cape Provincial Parliament. Daniel Silke is a regular guest on both South African and International media and the author for the business book, "Tracking the Future: Top Trends that will Shape South Africa and the World".

In his in-depth & factual, yet highly entertaining way, Daniel will tackle the following burning topic:

- South Africa: Tipping or Turning Point? An overview of the key Economic and Political dynamics facing the country as it goes to the polls in critical local government elections

We are looking forward to personally welcoming you to this interesting evening!
